

Larry E. Scott

BLOOMINGTON — Larry E. Scott, 66, Bloomington, passed away Friday (June 25, 2010) Lake Pana, Pana.

His funeral will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Calvert & Metzler Memorial Home, Bloomington. J. Kent Hickerson will officiate. Burial will be in Frankeberger Cemetery, Ellsworth. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Wednesday at the memorial home, with a Masonic service at 7 p.m.

A memorial fund has been established in his memory and may be mailed to his family.

Larry was born Oct. 22, 1943, in Bellflower, the son of C. Emil and Maude Stinde Scott. He married Nancy S. Mearida on Sept. 14, 1968, in Ellsworth. She survives.

Also surviving are three children, Amy (Tom Patten) Scott, Normal; and Andrew (Shannon) Scott and Julie (David) Hagler, both of Bloomington; three brothers, John (Mary) Scott, Fisher; Ivan (Mildred) Scott, Bloomington; and George Scott, Ellenton, Fla.; two sisters, Clarice Miller, Normal, and Joyce Beals, Beloit, Wis.; and three grandchildren, Marissa and Sienna Hagler and Michael Scott, all of Bloomington.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Charles Scott; and sister, Betty Woliung.

Larry graduated from Ellsworth High School in 1961. He had worked for the Illinois Department of Transportation and retired after 32 years of service. Since his retirement, he and his wife collected and sold antiques.

Larry was a member of Wade Barney Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite Valley of Bloomington. He was a former governor of the Bloomington Moose Lodge. He was a former union steward for the Teamsters. He served in the U.S. Army.

He was an avid fisherman who enjoyed his second home at Lake Pana. He was a lifelong Cardinals fan. He was a devoted husband, father and brother. His greatest joy in life was being “PaPa” to his three grandchildren.
